

Golden Rules, School Aims and Ethos

Stormont School
Independent Prep School for girls aged 4-11

Golden Rules:

Always follow instructions straight away
Be polite at all times and show good manners
Care for everyone and everything
Do your best, and join in

School Aims and Ethos:

- To develop happy, confident girls who are effective communicators.
- To establish each girl's abilities in all areas of the broad and challenging curriculum and to extend her to her full potential, rewarding effort as well as achievement.
- To offer a high quality education and continually seek to improve academic standards.
- To provide a friendly, safe, ordered community, with good working relationships between children, staff, parents and governors, where all members feel valued
- To understand the importance of a healthy lifestyle (food, activity, lessons)
- To develop individuals who respect the views and needs of others and who value the importance of good manners and courtesy.
- To engender in the girls a sense of pride in and respect for their school, their community and their country and a sense of respect for their environment.
- To prepare the girls for the next stage in their educational careers.

The school welcomes children from all faiths (and none) and through the Assembly and Religious Education programmes strongly supports the importance and value of religious belief (and culture) and moral behaviour in sympathy with British Values.

Stormont School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and all staff and volunteers must be willing to undergo child protection screening as appropriate, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.
